BELIEVE

I believe that every student is capable of learning if they feel that their classroom is a safe environment where they are not afraid to take chances.

ACHIEVE

In order to maximize the learning potential of every student, it is necessary to nurture positive relationships to create a culture where “everyone is a somebody.”

Building a positive growth mindset creates the inclusive classroom culture that is important for student success. To achieve this, I will utilize strength based strategies. I will:

- Model excellence
- Promote acceptance and value diversity
- Engage students in their learning
- Create accountability
- Encourage support of one another
- Contribute to a sense of belonging
- Encourage leadership
- Build respect of learning environment and spaces

SUCCEED

An inclusive classroom culture allows student to develop confidence and learn in an environment where they are not restricted by the fear of failure.

I believe that developing positive relationships, between a teacher and student and between the students themselves, are the fundamental aspects of quality teaching and student learning.
